November 21, 1935

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Again I am approaching you about my family tree. This time I trust that nothing so drastic as the terrible depression will inhibit me from carrying into effect my intensions.

If you are still doing this kind of work, may I have an appointment with you some time soon to discuss the details and learn the cost of what I wish done? It may be possible for me to come to your home, or I could see you should you have occasion to come to Norfolk.

I appreciate the visit you paid me once before, but shortly after that I found it best to interrupt my undertaking, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

W.E. Driver

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Your letter of November 25, in reply to mine was duly received, and I thank you very much for the information you gave me.

Since it would be to my advantage, if you would let me know a few days before you finish the work that is now occupying your time, I should greatly appreciate it.

It occurs to me that you would be able to answer a part of what I should like to know by letter, but what I have in mind is a little bit more extensive than looking up my family tree.

To arrive at what you would be willing to undertake and the cost, would require a personal interview. However, I shall await to hear when you are free, before writing you again, I am

Very truly yours,

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Your letter notifying me that you are ready to begin some research work for me has been received.

I feel that it is necessary that I should tell you at once that I do not know Mrs. Davis in the premises.

Col. Shpeherd, my son-in-law, has been assembling data for his own ancestral tree and collateral line, and I learned from him that he had several months ago, employed someone to hunt up my ancestry, and I presume that this was Mrs. Davis. This transaction of Col. Shpeherd rather surprised me, but he did not know that I had been in communication with you.

If I understand your letter correctly, the offer you made is most satisfactory to me, and I authorize you to begin your work for me at once, if the following is as you intended:

"A flat fee of $50.00 to give you all of the Driver material in the Isle of Wight records, with the collateral lines".

This arrangement is eminently satisfactory to me, and I trust that we have a complete understanding about the work before you go into it.

It is my desire to compile all the data so that I will have a fairly interesting book. This book will comprise my ancestry in this country, as well as in Europe.

A number of years ago someone sent me either the William & Mary Quarterly, or the Virginia Quarterly, which dealt with Giles Driver and Olive Hardy, which was the first marriage of the Drivers to take place in this country, and this article gave a rather interesting account of the marriage and the wedding presents. This is the kind of record that I would like to have with other wills and deeds. Is it your intention to have these in the book?

Yours truly,

Dear Dr. Driver:

My offer as you have stated it, needs a little clarification I feel. The collateral lines of all the Driver family would be almost a life time job for a genealogist, as you can well see. My offer was intended to furnish all the Driver material in the Isle of Wight records, with your collateral lines as far as I am able to establish them. Some genealogical problems absolutely baffle any researcher, for people do not always leave enough record of themselves to be identified. I will give you my best efforts, but it is absolutely impossible for me to assure you that I will be able to establish your line or be able to furnish all the collateral lines, for the identity of some wives in the line may be able to elude me.

I suppose you wish the search to begin with Dolphin with all that I am able to prove of Jemima Whitfield's ancestry.

I will begin work the first of the coming week and trust the results will be everything we both hope for.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs Chapman:

I talked to you over the phone June a year ago and at that time you told me to send you what I knew about my family and you thought it wouldn't be too hard to straighten out. I am sorry I have waited so long but hope you can help me.

I am (Miss) Mary Sue Driver, my father was John Davies Driver, my grandfather was Julius Allen Driver, my great grandfather was Julius Allen Driver (born 1795) and my great, great, grandfather was Giles Driver. I find the first trace of g. g. grandfather Giles in Georgia in Hancock County when the marriage of his daughter ⁽¹⁸⁰⁹⁾ to Sarah to Richmond Carroll is shown in records at Sparta Ga. Courthouse.
Giles sons were Gunn, Goodrich (whose grave I found in Lafayette, Alabama this summer), Berry, Giles, and my great grandfather Julius Allen Driver.
Goodrich Driver was born in 1787 or 1788.

I have always been told that Giles Driver served in the Revolution but have no proof of this. I tried in Isle of Wight county to figure all this but when I saw that Giles Driver and Olive Hardy had a son Giles and a son Charles and they ^{each} had a son Giles I couldn't go any further. By my great great grandfather Giles having a daughter who married in 1806 I know he must have been born by the 1750's or 1760's.

I would like to know what you charge for this work. I surely will be grateful for any information you can find. If any Revolutionary ancestor I want to know.

Sincerely,
Mary Sue Driver

your main interest of course is the establishment of the paternity of Robert who died in 1745.
He was not the son of Charles for Edward would hardly have called him friend when he appointed him his executor had he been either a brother or a nephew. mother is he included in the list of John's children. So if John can be eliminated he would necessarily have to be the son of Robert, however Robert I had the smallest estate approach of any of the sons and part of that had been attacked by Richard Reynolds, and the Robert who died in 1747 had as large an estate as any of the Drivere. He may have moved money, but the Prudence Drivere who was the daughter of Robert Richards was left in his will one shilling, which of course might indicate he had already given her her share of his estate. Unfortunately, I have been unable to find Robert's wife's name given anywhere. She was dead before he made his will and he did not sell land or property in which she had to join. Everything I can find seems to bear out such a suggestion as the actual proof is lacking.

We have everything that is to be found in the 100 of right records on the premises, I am confident.

I have not been able to find any reason why Robert Brewer should have named his son Dolphin (Drew) Brewer, Dolphin Brew at the time of his birth. was probably the most prominent man in the County - was a member of the House of Burgesses. I am nothing to suggest kinship and if it was friendship, the Court records do not show it, for I do not find them interesting for such.

Mrs. Dashiell, 90, Dies, Leaving 72 Descendants

Mrs. Emily Florence Dashiell, 90, oldest member of the former St. Luke's Episcopal Church (merged now into Christ and St. Luke's Church) and former head of two lodges, died yesterday at 5:40 a. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Cecil Leggett, of 1710 Gowrie Avenue, leaving 72 direct descendants.

The daughter of Thomas and Emily Jennings Hooker, she was a native of Elizabeth City, N. C., and came in childhood to live in Norfolk. 4/1/4 dear Mrs. Chapman, First, let me thank you for the very great pleasure I have derived from your four books of J. & Wight records, the "Marriages" bought by me thro' my ordered by her. We ancestry and I, beyond that, in the Driver data for a cousin in another line. Several of this family came into Georgia after the Rev.

& the line we are seeking begins definitely with one of those innumerable Giles Drivers - this one settling in what is now Jones Co., Ga. ca. 1799. I have the line completely worked out - from this Giles to the present, & your Virginia data; also, Boddie's account of land to the immigrant, Giles, in Va., & am sending you copies of Driver data in Vol. 4 Mary Quarterly, ^{VII, 237, 240, et seq.} & Bruce's "Virginia & Virginians." (295^{IV}-1296) It is, as usual, the connecting link between the Ga. & Va. ancestors that is lacking.

A no. of the generation of R.S. drew land in Ga. - Henry who served in 3^d S.C. Regt. -

Betty & the orphans, Driver (whom I susp. or Schabod, the name called "Bud," as a son of the Ga. Giles in his will & was thru' this line). Bird, Charles, Thomas, Sr. & Thomas, Jr. appear in N.C. Army accts. John travels down from G. of W. & Richmond thru' N.C. (Far R. region - where this line was supposed to stop on way to Ga.), & into S.C. I have all 1st Census reports of Va, N.C., & S.C. & am now trying for early tax lists in Ga.

The nearest equivalent to lost Census - Similarity in names, such as Giles, Julius, Dolphin
Schabod, in the Davis & Jordan families, include me to believe that these intermarried.

I am telling you all this as a preface to asking whether you have ever traced to the Galins & if so, what the fee would be for furnishing data to connect. This is not for me personally, & I'm sure you know the difficulties encountered in trying to make the descendants, who always want a finished product, understand the labyrinth of uncertainly before the trail to the open is found.

They want to pay for just - what it takes to fill in an application I don't doubt - but that there are Colonial Dance claims in the early Drivers in T. & B. have not yet gone into that.

I believe this line I win (from which Jones was cut in 1807.

If there is any chance of making this connection & my client could get an estimate of cost, I would send all this data on all or any of which you would be welcome to copy & use for any purpose of your own research.

With apologies for this lengthy preamble, I am,

Sincerely Yours,

P.S. If you are ever in need me know. I have just
